INSPIRING

Teachers strive to impart knowledge through varied class activities...

SUPERINTENDENT

L. S. Inscoc

The "Builder of Nash's School System" is now in his 42nd year as county school chief—42 years of love and labor, care and devotion.

B.H.S.

After 23 years of devoted service, the name R. B. Gordon has become synonymous in the minds of students with that of Benvenue School. Thousands will remember his sincere interest in their social and scholastic welfare.

SCHOOL BOARD

To these, the members of our school board, we are indeed grateful. We realize now that they have chartered our course from its beginning—readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic—to its climax—cap and gown, diploma, and graduation.

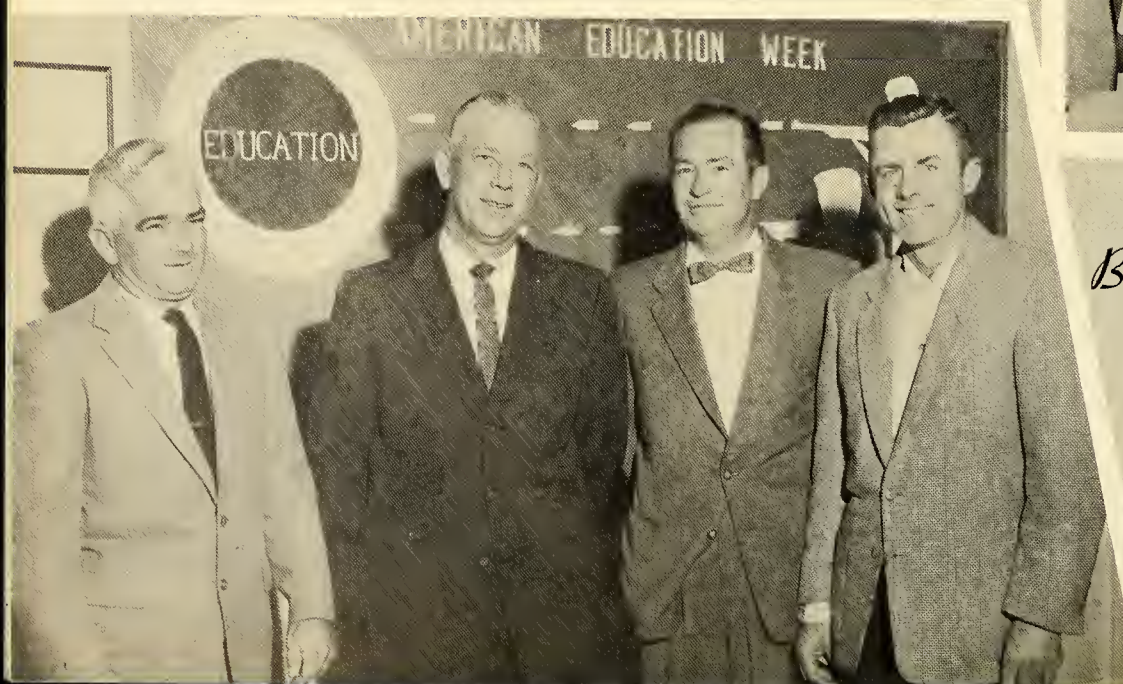

Left to right: S. S. Meyer, F. L. Walker, J. D. Barkley, R. R. Boseman

SECRETARY

Barbara Davis

A ready smile, a helping hand, a loyal alumna—that's our Barbara!

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

C. H. Fries

The connecting link between us and the county office, C. H. Fries has helped to promote the educational and extra-curricular activities of all Nash County schools.

Left to right: D. P. Harris, C. H. Andrews, Mrs. Ruby Reed, Mrs. B. Warren

P. T. A.

When Benvenue students need strong backing, a willing hand to help them, a sympathetic ear to hear their problems, they can always rely on the Parent-Teacher Association.

ADMINISTRATION

Left to right: K. E. Pittman, Mrs. Randolph Griffin, J. B. Overton, Jr.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Yeah! The lights came on! What more can we say but "Thanks a million" for that major accomplishment and all the other little things you've done to help put our sports program on a sound basis, financially and athletically.

Dear Mrs. Gordon:

I was certainly honored to have you ask me to judge the beautiful girls for the title of "Miss Benvenue." It was a pleasure for me. I didn't know it would be such a challenge for they are all such attractive young ladies.

Thank you once again, and it was a pleasure hearing from you. I wish you the utmost of pea pickin' success, and bless your little Pea Pickin' hearts.

Cordially,
